A PRETTY sentiment of the wedding of Miss Violet Joslyn and Mr. David Magowan was the orange blossoms worn on the bridal veil. These blossoms were sent from Jualita, the beautiful winter home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wattles at Hollywood, Cal. MANUFACTURERS TO BUY LINCOLN WAY BUTTONS

The dozen members of the board of directors of the Omaha Manufacturers' association are to purchase one E certificate each in the Lincoln Memorial Highway association. At the meeting of the board of directors at noon at the Commercial club, they decided to do this as individuals, to start the good work along. They endorsed the Lincoln Highway movement and took this little step to show their individual sincerity. It was also decided to invite Governor Moorhead to appear before the Omaha Manufacturers' association some time before November 15 to speak on the subject of prison labor on the Lincoln Highway.

LIBRARIANS ELECT OFFICERS

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Chadron is Named as President.

ALL PLEASED WITH MEETING

Closing Session is Devoted to the Work of Librarians, with Interesting Papers by Prominent People.

The final meeting of the Nebraska Library association was held yesterday in the public library. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Chadron, president.

Miss Nellie Williams of Geneva, first vice president. Miss Mary Hutchings of Falls City, second vice president.

Miss Lammers of the University of Nebraska, secretary-treasurer.

Every one expressed themselves as being well pleased with the convention and the treatment received while in Omaha. The convention next year will be held at Geneva, Neb.

The last meeting of the convention started at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. It was a business meeting, the discussions being centered upon the work of librarians.

"The Fumigation of Books" was ably discussed by Dr. Schultz of the medical department of the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Miss Joanna Hargy of Cedar Rapids, Ia., spoke on "Interesting the Public." "The Library from the Patron's Standpoint" was discussed by Matthew A. Hall of Omaha. The closing discussion, "What the Library Can Do for the Rural Community," was given by Miss Pauline Odham Murray. Miss Murray's discussion was based upon the report of a township library in Buffalo county, Nebraska.

Young South Omaha Couple Slip Away and Get Married

Much parental indignation was engendered Thursday when it was learned by the parents of Miss Edith Brewer, 522 North Twenty-fifth street, South Omaha, that she had eloped with William Kunnole, clerk of the Live Stock National bank.

Young Kunnole is 18 years of age, while Mrs. Kunnole is 18. In getting the license, which friends say was secured at Council Bluffs, the bridegroom necessarily perjured himself, and it was first rumored that he was going to be arrested upon such a charge. The difficulty then, however, arose as to the location of the couple, and they are said to be in hiding until such a time as eternal forgiveness is forthcoming.

The bridegroom did a half day's work Wednesday and had gone out to lunch, staying an unusual length of time. Finally he called up his employers and asked if he might finish his day's work in the morning. The privilege was denied him and he consequently returned later in the afternoon and completed his day's labor.

That was the last seen of him in South Omaha, and no word has since reached any of the couple's relatives as to where they are. Oscar Hug, South Omaha, witnessed the ceremony, but he is reticent on what he knows, excepting that the couple is "all set."

CREIGHTON CLUB WANTS CAR LINE TO SOUTH OMAHA

The members of the Creighton First Addition Improvement club will circulate a petition requesting that the street car company construct a new street car line to South Omaha by way of Hancock park. The petition asks for a line extending from Twenty-ninth and Dupont streets to Gold or Arbor, thence to Forty-second and south to Graefland cemetery, which will save twenty minutes, according to the club.

An extension of the west side park line was first contemplated by the club, but President Wattles of the street car company demonstrated that so many railroad tracks would have to be crossed that the extension would scarcely be feasible. Thus the club drew up the extension of the east side line.

Another petition was framed to be presented to Commissioner Howell of the Water board, asking for a water district in Home Terrace, west of the Missouri Pacific tracks, between Martha and Arbor streets. The club was promised the district over a year ago, but it has never been granted.

A third petition was framed requesting that a fire plug be installed at Thirty-fourth and Arbor. The Auditorium bond proposition was discussed, but no action was taken.

Grant Martin Comes to the Defense of Harley Moorhead

Grant Martin, attorney general of the state, has come to the defense of Harley G. Moorhead, election commissioner of Douglas county, in the fight now in the supreme court, in which city attorneys seek to secure enfranchisement for Father John Williams, who has voted in Omaha for forty years, but was turned away from the election commissioner's office when he sought to register.

Attorney General Martin has filed a brief in Moorhead's defense, giving the attorneys for Father Williams two days in which to digest it, as the case comes up for argument in the supreme court next week. Father Williams won his case in the lower courts and it was appealed by Moorhead. City attorneys maintain the office of election commissioner is a county office and that Martin is "butting in."

VIOLENT EARTHQUAKES FELT IN NICARAGUA

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, Oct. 17.—Violent earthquakes today shook the cities of Managua, Masaya and Granada. The alarmed population deserted their houses for the public squares and open spaces. One building collapsed in Jalteva, a suburb of Granada. The earth tremors coincide with the activity of the volcano of Santiago.

DR. ALEXANDER CORKEY TO SPEAK THIS AFTERNOON

Dr. Alexander Corkey, lecturer and author of Nebraska, is to deliver a lecture at the east side of the Young Men's Christian association building this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on "Literature for the Young Folks." A special invitation to sixth, seventh, eighth grades and high school students has been issued and a good assembly is anticipated. Dr. Corkey has won wide fame as a lecturer and an author in both the United States and Europe. He comes from the famous Irish family of Corkeys, seven brothers of whom have each won honors. It may be interesting to know that the man responsible for making this author, or at least bringing him to the attention of the world, encouraged him to write his first book and seeing that the same was published, was Henry F. Kieser, book seller, of Omaha.
